Theatrical and Musical.

Bowers Theatre.—The grand national and patriotic drams of "Putnam." will commence the entertainments this evening. Messrs. Eddy, Tilton and Perr will sustain the principal characters. The next piece will be the drams of the "Murdered Boatman." Mr. Taylor will appear as Will Wherry, and Mr. Cony, as Dick Darsell. The entertainments will conclude with the capital drams of "Oliver Tist." with Stevens, Goodall and Fanny Wallack, in the leading characters. This programme will be sure to draw a large assemblage.

BROADWAY THEATRE.—Mr. Forrest will appear to-moreoverening, in the character of Rolla, in the tragedy of "Pisarro." He will be ably supported by Mr. Conway. BY THEATRE.—The grand national and patri-row evening, in the character of Rolla, in the tragedy of "Pisarro." He will be ably supported by Mr. Conway, as Alonso. Mr. Fenno. as Pizurro, Mad. Ponisi, as Cora, and Mrs. Abbott, as Elvira. This is an excellent cast, and will be sure to draw a vast crowd of Mr. Forrest's admirers. The entertainments will conclude with the farce of "Mr. and Mrs. P." Davidge, a great favorite and an excellent comedian, will figure in the leading character, and, no doubt, will, as is usually the case, elicit the appliause of the visiters of the Metropolitan Theatre.

BURTON's THEATER.—The celebrated comedy entitled Burros's Thatras.—The celebrated comedy entitled "Dombey and Son," and the universally popular comedy syled "The Toodles," comprise the amusement selected by surton for this ovening. All the leading members of his sowerful company will appear. Who can resist visiting surton's, when such a highly attractive bill is offered.
Secure places early if you desire comfortable seats.

National Theatre.—Purdy, as usual, presents a fine

NATIONAL THATRE.—Purely, as usual, presents a fine entertainment this evening. The first announcement in the programme is the drama of the "People's Lawyer," which is ably cast. The next feature will be the very popular drams entitled the "New York Fireman," which has been so often performed at the National Theatre with the greatest success and enthusiasm. The concluding piece will be the laughable sketch called "Landsharks and Sascille" with many prominent artists in the leading and Seagulis," with many prominent artists in the leading parts.

Barnun's Mussum.—This establishment is crowded, every afternoon and evening, to witness the pleasing, light and highly amusing dramatic selections which are given. Professor McCormick will exhibit his wonderful feat of walking on the ceiling. The pieces selected are "The Bottle," and the grand spectacle of "Cherry and Fair Star."

BOWERY CIRCUS.—The excellent equestrian perform-snoes which are nightly given at the Amphitheatre, give the utmost delight and amusement to the visiters. Sands and his son are greatly admired in their beautiful postur-ing, and the exercises in the ring are enthusiastically ap-plauded.

Christy's Minstrails are, as usual, attracting large audiences. Their programme of entertainment for this evening is such as will be sure to draw a large audience and is for the annual benefit of that very excellent per-former Max Zorer.

Woon's Minstrans.—This band of negro minstrels are to give an afternoon and evening performance to-day. They continue to be witnessed by large assemblages, and are received with much delight. Miss Corine Laconer, a young lady possessing a very fine soprano voice, and of finished musical education, ap-pears in Boston next week, in a series of concerts to be given there. We have no doubt she will become a great favorite.

COMMERCIAL AFFAIRS.

MONEY MARKET.

FRIDAY, March 12-6 P. M. We have nothing new to report in the stock market. The bubble is steadily expanding, and must ultimately burst. We notice to-day more cash transactions than usual, which is an indication of exertion on the part of sellers. This will give a check to speculation, as very few operators in the street are overburdened with means. So ong as they can buy on time, there is no limit to their purchases. At the first board, to-day, Zine Company ad wanced ½ per cent; Eric Railroad, ¾; Long Island, ¾; Delaware and Hudson, ¾; Dauphin Coal Company, 4; Erie bonds, 1859, 14; New Haven Railroad, 16; Reading Railroad. 34.

The receipts at the office of the Assistant Treasurer of this part, to-day, amounted to $89,110; payments, $244,920 74—balance, $2,421,269 15.

There was a moderate demand for foreign exchange for remittance by the steamship Franklin to-morrow. The market has been liberally supplied with bills, and drawers have not been so firm. We now quote bills on London at 10 a 10% per cent premium. On Paris 5f. 20 a 5f. 18%. Amsterdam, 41 a 41%. Bremen, 78% a 78%. Hamburg, 36% a 36%. The Franklin will take out but a small amount of specie.

The steamship Asia, from Liverpool, brings three days later news from Europe. The intelligence is, in a commercial point of view, favorable, but does not vary materially from that brought by the Arctic. Full reports of the markets will be found under the proper head.

The Secretary of the department of Public Works of Canada has given notice that the Welland Canal is in a tl crough good state of repair and efficiency, and will be erened for navigation by the 20th of this month.

Marshel Pepoon was to-day elected a director of the North River Bank.

and auditors, to the Legislatures of the different S made at dates nearest to that given. The amoun down under the head of contingent debt is that fo for other purposes than directly for the people o State. It consists of loans made for the advancement some interest not entirely identified with the welfs the people at large. The public treasury is respon for the prompt payment of the interest on this contidebt, and for the payment of the principal at matu unless provided for by the parties more dir-connected with it. The contingent debt of any in the Union has been created by lending the of the public treesury for private purposes, liberality on the part of the legislatures is the great cause of the adoption of repudiation. But for the edium of that crime would never have rested any State of the confederacy. Had the State legislat confined their financial matters to legitimate cons tional channels—had they been free from certain iniqu outside influences, or, in other words, had our ha legislation not been filled with scheming, unprinc speculators, during a period of great commercial perity, every State would have been, at this moment from the charge of repudiation, or even delinquency. the time these contingent debts were contracted, public mind was filled with visions of immense we springing from works of internal improvement, from formation of banking institutions, from all sort imaginary sources, and a perfect mania existed for all sorts of projects. Individual credit having been enormously inflated, was exhausted, and it became neseeary to keep the elements of speculation in active operation some other way. Banks were manufactured by the dezen, in the early part of the movement, and their capitals filled by individual subscription As soon as they commenced business. loans and discounts were not only easily obtained, but fairly forced upon the In this way the movement progressed, until every resource was used up except State credit. This was the last resert; but it was available when absolutely necessary. The legislature of nearly every State in the Union was formed of speculators of the most reckless of in the importations of foreign dry goods. The m description. Nearly every outdoor interest was represculed, and when the proper time arrived, the necessary means were fortheaming. Debts, not only of an uncou stitutional but of the most extravagant character, were anthorized and negotiated and no provisions made for the payment of interest or principal but from the proereds of the bank, canal, or whatever the expenditure was made for. The people were for a time deluded and deceived with the belief that no more bordens would be imposed upon them-that direct taxation would be on tirely removed by the productiveness of the investments made of the money raised on State bonds. All this was very plustant, very militaritary for a time-it was no agreeable state of uncertainty, which gave an opposit for the speculators engaged in the entargoment of the public debts, to carry out every object they had in view. This they successfully accomplished, as the result clearly

After several years of this sort of financiering, or rather swindling, the bubble burst. The scales fell from the eyes of the people, and the game was up. Changes were made in the legislatures of the States. New members, untainted with any of the proceedings of previous years, were elected, and a thorough system of investigation into the public finances adopted. The operations of the treasury department were exposed, and in several instances where the greatest outrages had been committed, where all sorts of rascality had been practised, where debts had been contracted not only in opposition to the constitution of the State, but at enormous sacrifices, where the most wholesale plunder appeared in the most palpable form; in fact, where the treasury and the people had been publicly robbed, repudiation was reserted to as the only remedy. With a bankrupt treasury, with insolvency spread broad With a bankrupt treasury, with insolvency spread broad cast over the land, with half the people ruined and the other half shorn of most of their possessions, the public mind became desperate, and the long list of wrongs was increased rather than reduced. Plunged from the very pinnacle of prosperity to the very lowest depths of adversity, we should not wonder that acts were committed, which a long period of reflection has shown were unjust, if not illegal and dishonest. Repudiation was the result of the excitement, which at that time was most intense. It was caused in the first that time was most intense. It was caused, in the first place, by a knowledge of the insolvency of the State treasuries, which brought about delinquency, and, in the second place, by the knowledge that the delinquency was upon contracts made in the face of a clause in the State constitution which clearly showed their illegality. Had there been any doubt upon this point, there is not a State in the Union that would ever have been tainted with such a crime as repudiation. It is therefore plain that but for the utter inability of the repudiating States to meet their periodical payments promptly, but for the impossibility of escaping the odium of delinquency, there would have been no advantage taken of the unconstitutionality of a portion of the debts negotiated. We by no means uphold the doctrine of repudiation; but, upon the contrary, condemnit It is our impression that every claim against every repudia-ting, deliaquent State in the confederacy, will not only be ultimately assumed, but fully liquidated. There never may be an acknowledgment of the legality of some of the claims made, but their justice will be admitted, and they will be provided for. We probably shall, at some future day, recur to this important and interesting subject at greater length. We have made rapid progress in the mprovement of our State finances, and notwithstanding all the complaints made, and the great evils which really ereditor will receive the utmost fraction due. The annexed statement exhibits the value and quantity of foreign dry goods entered at this port for consumption

INDIA RUBBER GOODS.

RUBBER CAR SPRINGS.—THE FOLLOWING ADditional testimonial to the merits of F. M. RAY'S India Rubber Car Springs, over all others, has just been received. It needs no comment:—Hudson River Railroad Office, 68 Warren street, New York, March 5, 1852. F. M. Ray, Esq.—Dear Sir. Since my connection with this road, I have watched with much interest the matter of Rubber Springs for railroad cars, and have no hesitation in saying that your spring is incomparably the best article which I have seen or used. I have tried others, and found them to fall under pressure, or to freeze in cold weather, and become worse than useless. I should prefer using yours at double their cost, to employing any other rubber spring which has fallen under my notice. Your Springs possess the rare quality of preserving their clasticity at all temperatures. Yours, &c.,

OLIVER H. I.EE,

Late Superintendent of the Hudson River Railroad.

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMpanion-By Dr. A. M. Mauricau, Professor of Diseases of Women.—Twentieth edition, Ismo, pp. 250-Price, St.—Years of suffering, of physical and mental anguish to many an affectionate wife, and pecuniary difficulties to the insband, night have been spared by a timely possession of this work. It is intended especially for the married, or these contemplating marriace, as it discloses important secrets, which should be known to them particularly.

To those whose health does not permit of an increase of family, it is of special importances.

Here, also, every female—the wife—the mother—the one either budding into womanhood, or the other in the decline of years—in whom nature contemplates an important change, can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and most certain mode of cere, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.

(Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Dayton, Ohio.) Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU:—

MY DEAR SIR—My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and during her coad mement—every successive one more and more debilitating and prostrating her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst.
